Backstory: Journey Through Challenging Fixed Mindsets

To be my best me

I must discipline myself

to be focused, determined, motivated, and organized.

To be kind, caring, and true.

To love and respect myself and others

and to show self-control.

Today, I will be the best me I can be.

– Berneta Lemon, Mom.

OUR EDUCATIONAL PHILOSOPHY

Our approach, rooted in the Nourishment Cycle, relies on four pillars: Consciousness, Love, Unity, and Community. We start by fostering an awareness of our own value and potential to shape our reality. Then, we nurture self-love and extend it to others by making choices that promote happiness, health, and peace for ourselves and everyone else. This leads to unity, where we freely share knowledge and support each other's well-being, enabling us to build a caring community that continually learns, grows, and improves together.
