

Thank you for helping Arts North Carolina share our message and create awareness of our mission. We are striving to reach more diverse audiences in North Carolina, and are grateful that you are partnering with us to spread the word.

On this document, you will see images of the socials, and below are corresponding blocks of copy. Feel free to tweak the copy for your organization. Please feel free to use the ones you feel fit your audience the best. I am available if you need any changes or have any questions. We are grateful for your help spreading the word about our organization and mission.

Thank you!
